2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents.

3. At the foremost, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that there is enormous delay in disposal of the representation of the detenu, which vitiates the ultimate order of detention. With reference to the above claim, learned Additional Public Prosecutor has placed the details, which show that the representation of the detenu dated 12.04.2006 was received by the Government on 19.04.2006 and the remarks were called for on 20.04.2006. The representation of the detenu was received from the Government by the Collectorate on 21.04.2006 and parawar remarks were called for from the Sponsoring authority on 24.04.2006 and the remarks were received from the sponsoring authority on 19.05.2006 and report was sent to the Government on 22.05.2006. In the mean time, the remarks were received by the Government on the same day 22.05.2006 and the File was submitted on 23.05.2006 and the same was dealt with by the Under Secretary and the Deputy Secretary on 24.05.2006 and finally, the Minister for Prohibition and Excise passed orders on the same day i.e. on 24.05.2006. The rejection letter was also prepared on the same day i.e. on 24.05.2006 and the same was sent to the detenu on 26.05.2006 and served to him on 29.05.2006. As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel for the petitioner, though parawar remarks were called for from the sponsoring authority on 24.04.2006, the remarks were received from the sponsoring authority by the Collectorate only on 19.05.2006 and there is no explanation at all for sending the remarks to the Collectorate belatedly. In the absence of any explanation by the person concerned even after excluding the intervening holidays, we are of the view that the time taken for sending the remarks to the Collectorate is on the higher side and we hold that the said delay has prejudiced the detenu in disposal of his representation. On this ground, we quash the impugned order of detention.

4. Accordingly, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the impugned order of detention is set aside. The detenu is directed to be set at liberty forthwith from the custody unless he is required in some other case or cause.
